

YOU ARE PART OF THE STORY

WHEN YOU GIVE TO GCM:

- You are helping Persecuted Believers in the Underground Church

GCM is a network of believers who live in regions where Christians are persecuted for their faith. The daily threat of excommunication, imprisonment, and death looms over them constantly.

- You are helping reach the Unreached People of the Middle East

GCM has unique access to cities and villages where missionaries cannot get to. When you get involved with GCM, you are literally reaching unreached people groups.

- You are helping Muslim background believers plant Indigenous Churches

GCM is made up of leaders who were once Muslims themselves, which means they have a unique understanding of the cultures of the Middle East and Islam. In turn this makes it very easy to reach their own people groups. When you sow into GCM, you are fueling indigenous work of disciple making, church planting, and developing more leaders in restricted-access and hostile nations.

OUR MISSION

GCM EXISTS TO TRANSFORM MUSLIMS WORLDWIDE THROUGH JESUS CHRIST BY MEANS OF EVANGELISM, DISCIPLESHIP, CHURCH PLANTING, LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT, AND COMPASSION MINISTRIES.

The work of GCM is a global effort of believers worldwide. We are ALL called to make disciples. When you partner with us, you are helping to fulfill the great commission on the front lines.

MEET NAVID

GCM CORE DISCIPLE MAKER

Navid was raised in a troubled home, like many in restricted-Muslim nations. As a young child, his parents divorced and he was sent to live with extended family members where he was raped. Since his parents were drug addicts, Navid lost hope that anyone would be able to support or care for him. Because of this pain, he hated his life and wished he was never born.

As he got older, Navid questioned God, religion, and Islam. He began to ask questions such as, “If Islam is the most complete religion, why is my family in this situation?, Why am I so depressed?, and Why is everyone in my country so hopeless?” Navid turned to drinking to ease his depression and decided to become an atheist.

One day on the way to the liquor store, Navid met a GCM disciple maker who reached out to him and invited him into a conversation. Although Navid was depressed and withdrawn, he took notice of this new friend’s persistence to get to know him and eventually took him up on his offer to meet some friends out at a coffee shop. He told his life story to his new friends and how he decided to become an atheist. These new friends were different because they spoke about God in a way Navid had never heard before. They asked him if he would like to know who the real God was.

As they began to share about Jesus, Navid felt peace. Many of the questions Islam was unable to satisfy about God, were now answered. The next day they met again. This time Navid’s new friend presented the Gospel and asked him if he would like to receive Christ as his savior. Navid said he would, and they prayed together. His friends gave him a Bible and he went home and began to read it.

While reading the book of Matthew and this passage stood out to him, “For where two or three are gathered in my name, there I am in the midst of them...” (Matthew 18:20). Right then, Navid closed the Bible and said, “God, I know it says there should be two or three, and I am only one person, but if You are real, I know you can prove it to me.” Immediately, Navid heard footsteps behind him and a holy presence came into his dark, previously depressed bedroom. He began to tremble and was unable to speak. It was then he knew, the God of the Bible, Jesus Christ, was the true God. Navid returned to tell his new friend what happened. Now 3 years later, Navid is a disciple maker with GCM, reaching hundreds of Muslims every week!
